

AdCo

Administrative Cooperation Group for the Market Surveillance of Construction Products

The Administrative Cooperation Group for the Market Surveillance of Construction Products (AdCo Market Surveillance) serves the exchange of information and the coordination of the national market surveillance authorities for construction products. Furthermore, this is to enable the cooperation on Europe-wide coordinated market surveillance programmes and the shared use of resources between national market surveillance authorities.

Source URL: <https://www.oib.or.at/en/adco>